Bridges are passageways linking together places, things, ideas, and time. Like the George Washington Bridge, they may be tangible, real, and obvious; like the bridge between childhood and adolescence, they may be vague, elusive and obscure. Some bridges are permanent structures built to last a lifetime, while others are so transitory that indeed their very existence is debatable.

Sue Dykstra

A reflective thought reveals highlights of the days gone by which have merged into a composite of pleasant memories.

The jangling alarm is forever stilled in my dresser drawer. Music from my clock radio now fills the moments left for savoring the lingering peace of the night while pondering the day's forthcoming activity.

Memories.

As the span is crossed all will be revealed and interrelated for whatever purpose since today becomes yesterday, tomorrow.

THEME . . . Page 1

As we grow, bridges materialize, fade, vanish and reappear in never-ending progression. The child becomes adult and progresses from the dependent individual to the self sufficient, from the student to the worker and often, from the idealist to the realist. We have before us a world of bridges; bridges of time, friendship, altruism, challenge, and many others. Some have been traversed, but many remain yet to be conquered.

Bear Mountain Bridge

SENIORS . . . Page 14

After four years of growing together it is time for the class of 1981 to bid farewell. We have seen classes before us leave and wish luck to those that remain. We have crossed over the bridge from awkward freshmen to prestigious upperclassmen. As we take that last glimpse down the halls we will never forget the people and moments that filled our years at R.H.S.

SPORTS . . . Page 66

Sports play a major role in life at R.H.S.. In defeat as well as in victory, the team members always give their all. Every day after school dedicated athletes can be found in the gym or on the field working out in order to win for Ramsey. School spirit soars along with the team effort and the enthusiastic support of the cheerleaders. The greatest spirit, however, comes from the fans. Theirs smiles, whistles, shouts and stomps help give the teams that extra burst of energy that make the RAMS #1.

ACTIVITIES ... Page 114

School is not just for book learning. It is a place for the development of individuals socially as well as academically. Ramsey High School offers numerous activities in which students are encouraged to participate. There is an activity to suit every personality and interest. Whether it be debating, singing, reporting or dancing, each student can find fulfillment in an activity which expresses his or her individuality.

UNDERCLASSMEN ... Page 144

If someone were to say that a high school's reputation relies strictly on that year's class, they obviously have not been to Ramsey High. Underclassmen are involved in virtually all aspects of school life. The individuals who are today's underclassmen are the heroes and heroines of tomorrow's seniors. The Nugget Staff presents with great anticipation, the underclassmen of 1981.

FACULTY and ADMINISTRATION ... Page 168

The atmosphere of a school is dependent upon its teachers. The teachers at Ramsey High have helped us to see what is best in ourselves so that we might use our natural skills more effectively. From them we have learned to question what we once might have taken for granted. They have instilled within us a sense of ourselves which allows us to move forward.

SENIOR

Senior Class Officers

Each class that leaves Ramsey High School has developed certain characteristics as a group. We believe that the chief characteristic of our class, the class of 1981, is the closeness we feel for one another. This special bond of friendship will remain with us throughout our lives.

A Team We Could Never Do Without

Time and time again, students and faculty members require the assistance of R.H.S.'s fine custodial staff. These men make up the silent army that keeps the school orderly after the last athletes and yearbook editors have departed. This year's staff is well organized and efficient in performing its duties around the school. To all of the custodial staff — thanks — we could never have managed without you!

ON THE RUN TO #1

From the beginning of July when workouts began, through the August Captain's practices, and into camp week September 1st, the Rams worked together to build a team of champions. Not even the team members realized how far the Rams would go during the course of the season.

Recognition started coming to the Rams following a defeat of Hawthorne, 15-6. The growing power of the team became more apparent after Glen Rock was demolished 12-6. The team romped undefeated all the way to its fourth consecutive playoff bid. They played their hearts out and beat the N.B.I.L.'s Demarest for the first state playoff win in Ramsey football history. The next game was the Turkey Bowl, a fearsome match against arch-rival Mahwah, which the Rams took control of in the second half, to win 20-7. A final State playoff game was just around the corner at Giants Stadium, a Rocky II rematch against Hoboken. The Rams suffered an unfortunate defeat at the Meadowlands. Despite their first and only loss, the 1980 Rams will long be remembered for their triumphant season.

RHS INVITATIONAL

The girls tennis team was a young one this year, but despite the inexperience in varsity action the members played well and came in second in the league with a record of 7-5. First and Second singles were played by seniors Allison Peters and Melanie Murray, respectively. Lisa Guidice, a sophomore, played well enough to receive Honorable Mention All-League. Other team members included Robyn Katver, Marie Heym, Leslie Feil, Kris Markewitz, Meaghan McLaughlin, Jaime Richards, Mimi McLaughlin, and Margie Kondoleon. Next year should prove to be a good season with many starters coming back. Coach Terhune foresees a possible league championship in the near future.

They FLIP Over Gymnastics

The 1980 Varsity Gymnastics Team finished the season with a record of 4 wins and 6 losses. The Captain, Eileen Clare, qualified for the Sectional and County meets and received an Honorable Mention for the County. The team consisted mostly of sophomores who acquired a wealth of experience. With the majority of the team returning next year, the outlook for the 81-82 season is very promising.

SOCCKER TO ME!!!

During the 1980 fall sports season, the Varsity Soccer team was supported by a group of their own cheerleaders. These girls were coached by Mrs. Mary Lee VanderGaag and provided the team with enthusiastic verbal encouragement. With luck, these spirited girls will return next year to cheer on another winning team.

VICTORY AFTER VICTORY

The 1980 Varsity Soccer Team was the most successful in Ramsey history. Their 19-4 season culminated with the Bergen County Tournament Finals.

The Rams potent offense was led by John Karpovich, Scott Doyle, and all-County forward John Sealy, with all-County half-back Mark Young coordinating the attack.

Ramsey's success was largely dependent on its midfield. Karl Korz and Doug Rossier did the defensive work while Jimmy Zeliff and Tim Perna carried the offensive duties.

Hugh Brewster led Ramsey's stubborn defense this year. Doug Jones, Andy Dundorf, and Joe Peraino were also vital to the Rams' defensive toughness.

Goalie, Bob Boff, a junior, finished the season with an impressive record, giving up a mere 20 goals.

The BPSL's Coach of the Year, John Cammarata, finished out his coaching career at Ramsey with a team which was the finest ever. His enthusiasm and his ability to work with players was remarkable. He will be remembered by his players not only as a coach, but also as a friend.

Field Hockey Season Proves Tough

Ramsey's Field Hockey team has a reputation for excellence. This year's team attempted to continue this tradition. The Rams took on twelve freshmen who had to develop playing expertise to fill the five varsity spots that were left vacant by graduating seniors. The new team played to the best of its ability — and it was enough. The team record was 8-6-4.

They moved into the county semi-finals defeating Northern Highlands 3-0 and then made it into state play. The seniors who played an important role during this successful season will be missed.

Serve, Set, and Spike To Victory

The 1980 season proved to be a fruitful one for the Girls Volleyball Team. With leadership and inspiration provided by Coach Bainbridge and Co-Captains Denise Mekita and Kathy Murphy, the team went on to achieve a record of 12 and 4. This landed them in second place in the league, ultimately sending the team to the County Tournament.

Young Team Fares Well

Not in the few years that Ramsey High has had a Girl's Soccer team has the team finished its season with such an impressive record. Under the leadership of Coach Stead, they went on to win the State Sectional Semi-Finals against Mountain Lakes. The team included First Team All-League members Gen Kaminski, Donna Dauenheimer, Chris Auleta, and Captain Laura Slagle, as well as Captains Nancy Walter and Leisa Aquinas.

THE VISE SQUAD

The 1981 Wrestling Rams are striving for their seventh consecutive winning season. They are led by their outstanding senior captain Joe Mandara, two time District Champ and Regional Runner-up. Other returning lettermen include Joe Ianiro, Mike Greenshields, Jay Shortway and Mike Yenke. At mid-season the team record was 5 wins and 3 losses. Wrestling Coach Sylvan Hershey celebrated his 100th win at Ramsey High when the team defeated Manchester.

The 1980-81 Ramsey High School Basketball Team, led by Coach Bob Biegel, radiated a feeling of true team spirit throughout the season this year. Encouraged by team Captain Ted Bell and Co-Capt. Lou Kertesz, the team improved its record over past seasons. Other starting players, who included Bruce Vozeh, Carl Korz, Scott Doyle, and Army Rusis, contributed to the team's success. Underclassmen John Mastandrea and Vince Leonetti also saw a lot of action. Greatly aiding the team were Seniors Tim Perna, as a defense specialist, and steady performer Pat Gil. Highlights of the season included a game against Mahwah and the triumphant victory over a talented Waldwick team. Although the team did have its ups and downs, feisty Coach Biegel held his team together and brought them back when the situation got tough.

WE'VE GOT SPIRIT!

After completing a long football cheering season, the basketball cheering squad takes over. This squad works hard devoting many hours on and off the court to the promotion of spirit. These girls are talented and versatile, spirited and determined — outstanding representatives of RHS. Underclass members of the cheering squad include: Marial Chappell, Stacey Robins, Stephanie Gallo, and Kristen Alberse.

The Physical Fitness Team, popularly known as the "Murray Nuts" helps athletes acquire a competitive edge. They have an exercise regimen consisting of sit-ups, push-ups, pull-ups and running. During the sixteen years that they have participated in Marine Corps competitions, they have won the state championship eight times, finished second four times, and come in third four times. At their peak in 1972, the Murray Nuts were so distinguished as to win the National Championship. The club is coached by Michael Adams.

EVERYBODY IN THE POOL

The Swimming Team began its season with a big SPLASH! The girls finished up with a 9-1 record, losing only by 2 points to a tough Clifton team. Outstanding seniors included Co-captain Jackie Balder, Co-captain Melanie Orsi, Dorothy Rogers and Alice Backhaus. The boys wound up with an 8-2 record. The highlight of the season was a surprising second place finish at the league meet. Senior Captain Todd Kemmerling had a fantastic season and was the most valuable swimmer. The team is looking forward to next year with many talented underclassmen returning.

MOVE OVER YANKEES: THE RAMS ARE COMING

The Rams have a strong nucleus for the 1981 season. A lot of innings were invested in young players last year with the hope that it would pay dividends this year. Ram infielders include John Sealy, Paul Mende, Jeff Welch, John Sculthorpe and Tim Hall. Outfielders to keep tabs on are John Milstead, Bob Walsh, Marty Van Horn, Ed Jarvis, Todd Kemmerling and Scott Richardson. Catcher Paul Young will be handling Jim Zeliff, Frank Jablonski, Rich Farnham, Spero Matthews, and Tony Upton. Younger players who will contribute include Russ Pierce, Mike Finn, Bob McNally, Bill Hanson, and Joe Feinberg.

Future Looks Bright For Softball

The 1981 Softball Team is young and inexperienced, but enthusiastic. Led by its senior Tri-Captains Judy Shortway, Lisa Nelson, and Laura Garone, the team will attempt to improve upon last year's 12-11 record. With 15 underclassmen, the future is bright for softball at Ramsey High.

GAME, SET, AND MATCH

The 1981 Boy's Tennis Team is looking ahead to another successful season in the BPSL-Group 3 League. Coached by Bruce Stead, team members are returning seniors Dave Neiblum, Geoff Kraft, and Dave Tittensor, juniors Pat Metz, Ricky Hayes and Greg Bales, and sophomores Mike Neumann and John Valenti. New team members include juniors Mark Freiman, Maarten Nederlof, and Austin Steele, sophomore Steve Zirkel, and freshman Mike Hefter. John Valenti's consistent placement skills place him at first singles position and Neiblum, Kraft, and Bales will vie for the second and third singles positions. The team should have a winning and enjoyable season.

A TOAST TO SYLVAN C. HERSEY

Coach Hershey talking to team members Joe Mandara and Jeff Creamer.

"The 1980-81 season was Coach Syl Hershey's seventh and final year as Head Coach of the Ramsey Wrestling team. The team's success this year was especially enjoyable to him. In addition to a 10-5 season, this year's team also attained Coach Hershey's 100th career coaching win, a feat they are especially proud of. In his own high school years, Mr. Hershey was a Pennsylvania State Wrestling Champ as a sophomore, and went on to a highly successful collegiate wrestling career. Ramsey Wrestling has achieved an impressive reputation in both Bergen County and State competition, thanks primarily to Mr. Hershey." — Robert Marcotulli

Coach Hershey demonstrates a move to a wrestler on the mat.

"The keys to Mr. Hershey's success lie in his dedication to the sport, his competitive, winning attitude and his concern for his wrestlers both on and off the mat. These qualities rub off on the team and inspire athletes to work to their potential. Syl Hershey has made a lasting mark on Ramsey's wrestling program. He will be missed in the years to come." — Rich Cervino

"R" Is More Than A Letter

Athletic excellence and team spirit are emphasized by Varsity "R" members who earn their letter either by actively participating in a varsity sport or by cheering for a varsity sport. R.H.S. DEBATERS VOICE THEIR OPINIONS

Ramsey High Debate Club belongs to two debate leagues: The North Jersey Debate League, which has grown to include thirteen schools and has had to split into two divisions; and The Record Debate Classic, held at Ramapo College in May.

The purpose of the club is to engage students in debating a topic of national interest in order to stimulate thinking, to encourage students to express themselves well in a competitive situation, and to practice these skills of thinking and speaking within the rigid structure of a series of debates.

A debate consists of two teams of two members each. One team is affirmative and the other is negative. Each person presents a five minute constructive speech, then is cross-examined for two minutes by the opposing team. Then each team presents a two minute rebuttal. Teams are judged on organization, presentation, quality of evidence, and validity of argument.

Mrs. Norma Van Dyke is the advisor. Members include: Ruth Dreisbach: president, Morgan Gerhart, and John Kennedy.

THE RAM

The Ram's function is to inform Ramsey High School students about a wide range of school activities and student interests in a creative, informative, and entertaining style which will appeal to all students. The Ram has maintained its tradition of quality reporting for the past forty years, reflecting students' opinions and efforts.

Ram Philosophy:

- To report on the activities and experiences of the students of Ramsey High School, and on the news affecting their lives.
- To report and interpret local, state, and national news from the perspective of high school students.
- To provide a forum for student expression.
- To promote the positive aspects and help eliminate the negative aspects of Ramsey High School.

A.F.S. Goes Far Afield

The Ramsey High School chapter of the American Field Service is quite active. AFS facilitates communication between countries by enabling qualified students to experience what life in a foreign country is like. Our school hosted two AFS students this year, Mario Flota from Mexico and Betina Muelbert from Brazil. Several weekend and short term exchanges were planned for this year with neighboring schools. This year's candidates to go abroad are: Debbie Petit, Mike Rough, and Kim Grove. Co-presidents of the RHS chapter are Karen Mack, who spent the summer in Brazil, and Jim Becraft, who went to Sweden for the summer.

Concert Band

Mr. Young — Director

The 1981 Ramsey High School Concert Band consists of some forty members, almost exclusively freshmen and sophomores. Their advisor is Mr. Noel C. Young. Among their accomplishments are division II (Excellent) ratings at the 1980 New Jersey ASBDA Festivals and second place in the Concert Band division of the 1980 Toronto International Music Festival.

Members: Kirsten Anderson, Suzanne Burghold, Greg Cassella, Beth Cook, Maria Delano, Ruth Donnerhack, Eileen Dorney, Dave Dougherty, John Geppert, Lisa Gertsch, Diane Gray, John Heinze, Martha Heinze, Paul Herrholz, Dawn Hoffman, Aileen Hopko, Patti Hoppin, Kim Hoyt, John Hulsizer, Tony Ingersoll, Carla Iudica, Jan Kemmerling, Lisa Katz, Jay Kopf, Debbie Lyon, Karen Magri, Porter Morgan, Erin Murphy, Mark Muzzillo, Maggie Shurko, Cindy Spanier, Cathy Steers, Andy Stenwall, Jean Trulsen, Linda Tseng, Eileen Tynan, John Valenti, Tom Werner, Gretchen Zellmer, Jane Zuroff.

Jazz Ensemble

The purpose of the Jazz Ensemble is to explore jazz with emphasis on jazz styles and improvisation. The group is selected from the total band membership. Later in the year they attend several festivals and competitions. The group gives up their own time to meet after regular school hours. Members include: Dave Daugherty, Brian Stutz, Mark Heinze, Crosby Engel, Cliff Bialkin, George Bumiller, Scott Ghiz, Todd Kemmerling, Mike McCambridge, Cathy Jordan, Rob Smits, Liz Pilecki, Betsy Sabatini, Scott Donnerhack, Pete Ineson, Tom Clappi.

Wind Ensemble

Ramsey High School Wind Ensemble is a unique group of musicians. To be considered for the group each student must try out and meet the director's musical standards. Generally, the members are able to maintain a high academic average while keeping the quality of their music to a maximum level. The ensemble, which consists of about 40 musicians, takes a spring trip each year where they compete with other bands from across the country which share their musical interests.

BIG BLUE MARCHING BAND

The 1980 edition of the Ramsey "Big Blue" Marching Band was led to another successful season by drum major Todd Kemmerling. Their repertoire consisted of "Pictures of Spain," Drum Solo, Earth, Wind, and Fire's "In the Stone," Chuck Mangione's "Echano," "Don't Cry Out Loud," and a closing fanfare. The "Big Blue" finished the season with the best performance in the history of the band. At the Middle Atlantic States Championship they took fifth place in their size group. Ramsey High School should be proud to have one of the best marching bands in the Northeastern United States.

G.A.L.'s Girls

Guardian Angel League, also known as G.A.L., is responsible for generating much of the school spirit within Ramsey High. Each week members decorate the senior athletes' lockers with candy and baked goods.

The High School Bowl Begins To Strike

Ramsey High School has added a new varsity sport to its list of extra-curricular activities, the High School Bowl. This group is involved in gymnastics of a sort . . . mental gymnastics. Matches are held at William Paterson College in Wayne, and can be viewed on cable television at preannounced times. The team began its year with two winning matches, defeating Manchester 350-20 and Montville 345-155.

S.O.S. Can Help

S.O.S., Student Outreach Service, is a new organization with a novel slant. It is a group of students trained to listen to the problems of their peers and refer them to helping agencies when necessary. The members have been taught listening skills by the West Bergen Mental Health Center. Members pictured: Debbie Mullin, Roberta Roche, Cathy Jordan, Kathy Cullen, Virginia Eibert, Kathy Mahaney, Terry Wikoff, Stephanie Childs. Other members include: Marial Chappell, Tim Hall, and Juliet Rutten.

Mind Exercises

While the origin of Olympics of the Mind is the State Department of Education, the club has moved far beyond its governmental origins. This program enables intellectually gifted students to work out technical programs, vocabulary games and mechanical construction assignments in order to develop their thought processes more fully. Students compete with other clubs on the regional and state levels.

Advisor: Mrs. Norma VanDyke

Members: Ruth Dreisbach, Dave Omundsen, Morgan Gerhart, Martha Heinze, Kirk Gagnon, Jill Thramann, Linda Tseng, Andy Nicastro, Mike Knipp.

Something's Cooking In The Kitchen

A lot was cooking in the home ec. room this year. The group got the scoop on what goes on behind closed doors by touring the kitchen of a local restaurant. Speaking of behind closed doors, members also visited the C.I.A. . . . better known as the Culinary Institute of America. The club provides its members with the opportunity to familiarize themselves with all the career possibilities available in the field of home economics.

NEVER BEFORE AND NEVER AGAIN

NUGGET STAFF

YEARBOOK ROOM

"I KNOW I said Monday; today IS Monday!" — Dani O'Connell, Editor in Chief

Proverb #2 — "Be real or don't be at all." — Denise Neumann, Managing Editor

Family Portrait

"But it sounded so simple when Bill explained it!" — Jim Bischoff, Associate Editor

Each year the Nugget staff starts out to bring you THE SUPERIOR CREATION. This year's staff was no exception. Full of enthusiasm we anticipated a memorial to our efforts crammed with action photos, witty remarks and flattering pictures of students and teachers alike — the best yearbook ever!

However, we weren't far into the first semester when we realized the inevitability of compromise between the idealistic and the realistic. We learned that color pages were expensive; not all action shots were exceptional; and everyone's portrait was not glamorous or macho.

We had to come to grips with the fact that not all would see themselves in flattering poses as often as they would like. Composition, layout and editing were the tedious, unglamorous, behind-the-scene activities — and always there were the inevitable deadlines.

In the end we created another yearbook as a memento to the activities at Ramsey High School in the year 1981. Hopefully it is the best ever!

"It was difficult enough before they took the keys off the typewriter!" — Joanne Ladd,
Copy Editor

"Get, like, MEGA food . . ." Margaret Cassella, Senior Class Editor

Four fools in the fountain!

It was surprisingly difficult, after writing and laying out some two hundred pages, to do these three pages; to capture "our gang." As a staff, we've shared some hard times and we've learned to work together as a whole, each contributing his own "thing" to produce a perfect product. But we have to confess to the fun, too. Like the $250.00 we spent on food — be it pizza, B.K., crunchy Cheez Doodles, donuts, and other various munchies (Boulder Burgers!); our midnight meetings (in process right now!); our publishing representative — B.T. (Margaret really doesn't hate him!); and two adventurous editors who stole the typewriter from the RAM room, made it past three custodians and a room full of staff members all without being caught! Mrs. D. became our second mother; the yearbook room our second home. We battled the senior class, coaches, and the attendance office. Teachers began to ask when they would get their students back and parents began to set one less place at the dinner table. Now, in the end, we are relieved, but a bit sad. We'll miss the fun, the excitement of getting proofs back and having them turn out better than expected. But it was worth it, every last tear, every bit of laughter, every missed hour of sleep. Twenty years from now WE'LL look back and know that we made this book something to treasure.

"Watch the birdie!" Craig MacGibbon using his more sophisticated equipment!

"But it was right here!" — Valerie Groh, Activities Editor

Underclass editors making plans for the future.

Mrs. D. and the gang on their way to another tough assignment.

Portrait of the artist as a young man. — Dave Neiblum, Art Editor

Sports Editors, Rich Jordan and Lou Kertesz congratulating each other . . . on a job well done?

"Sure! Sure!" — Andy Smits, Photography Editor and jack of all trades.

You have been asked during your tenure at Ramsey High School to make many choices in your own best interest and pursue your education with a positive attitude and great enthusiasm. Your success in making the right choices, by virtue of your graduation this June, is evident. You have studied and worked, practiced and played, and grown — both mentally and physically — to the point that you are now ready to commence your lives as members of the adult community. Graduation, or "commencement", you see, is not an ending, but a beginning. For some of you this will mean college and further years of preparation and study. For others, it will mean a job and the responsibilities of family living. Whatever course your future takes, it is my hope that you will look back on your years at Ramsey High School — its courses, activities, and staff — as having prepared you to meet and deal with the challenges that life will present. On behalf of the staff and administration of Ramsey High School, may I offer to every senior my congratulations and my sincere wishes for joy and happiness in a productive and healthy life.

Each Person is Unique

The counselors at Ramsey High School believe each student is a unique person, with special needs, abilities, interests and goals. It is our hope to provide each student with an opportunity to develop a close relationship with a professional counselor, dedicated to working on behalf of that student. In counseling, all students have the opportunity to seek help for their concerns whether they be educational, social or personal. Counselors do their best to help students resolve their problems and thereby lead a more productive and well-adjusted high school life.

Speak Up

Language study is available to every Ramsey High School student, and nearly all take advantage of this privilege during some part of their high school career. Ramsey High School students can pursue French and Spanish through the fifth year and Latin and German through the fourth. Many students take several languages simultaneously, many audit other language courses and still others have chosen an independent study program in one of several levels. Each year language students are taken to local points of interest where they may apply their classroom instruction. In the last few years, Ramsey High School groups have enjoyed extended stays in Quebec, Spain and Mexico. The Foreign Language Department has always attempted to tailor its offerings to the changing needs of its students.

English is a MUST at RHS

Everybody takes English, but not everyone likes it nor do they speak it well. The English Department tries to help all students speak, write and read the English language as well as possible. During the first two years everyone takes the basic courses. In their junior and senior years students choose from a list of electives covering a wide range of interests, but all stress the basic skills in language usage.

Once Upon a Time . . .

The Social Studies Department at Ramsey High School seeks to develop in each student an appreciation of our American heritage and an understanding of human behavior in our complex world. The program of studies helps students to acquire knowledge, skills and attitudes leading toward the development of sound democratic participation. In addition to the required American history program, a wide variety of electives is offered. All students have the opportunity to explore areas of personal interests and to develop their full potential as students and citizens.

From Basic Skills to Calculus

The primary goal of the Mathematics Department is excellence in mathematics education for all students. The total program provides sequences of courses for students of different abilities and interests. Basic mathematical skills are reinforced throughout the mathematics curricula. The college preparatory program prepares students for freshmen college courses in analysis of finite mathematics. The culmination of the honors program is a course in calculus based on the syllabi of the College Entrance Examination Board; additional electives in computer programming and statistics are also available. The fine efforts of the department are rewarded each year in the excellent performance of Ramsey's students on a variety of standar-dized tests.

Business Department Eyes the Future

The Business Education Department offers each high school student the opportunity to become a contributing force in the business world beyond the doors of RHS. Every student is a part of the business world now as well as after formal education has been completed. Whether a student elects skill courses to obtain employment or to acquire for personal efficiency depends upon his goals. The learning experiences and critical thinking developed in social business courses enable students to become successful consumers or producers. Competency in manipulation of our monetary system is mastered. Each course offers an opportunity for the student to acquire the attitudes and work habits needed for success in employment. Each contributes to the student's personal, civic and economic well-being.

Artistic Communication

Since our young people are immersed in, and often bombarded by, a highly visually and auditory oriented society, studying the means of artistic and musical communication has definite advantages for the artists and non-artists alike. By doing so, these people will develop visual and musical criteria and discrimination extending beyond natural response and, more importantly, beyond conditioned tastes and preferences. Only people who are visually and musically knowledgeable are able to rise above fad and fashion and make their own reasoned judgments of what is appropriate for them and aesthetically pleasing as well.

Industrial Arts is an important part of general education. It is a study of the ways and means by which we are supplied with materials and products which we use in everyday life. Included is a study of the changes we make in raw materials to increase their value for usage, the study of the selection in relationship to purpose of usage, a study of the care and upkeep of the products possessed, and a study of the social responsibilities we should share as a result of the methods and practices of industrial production and distribution. The consumer's point of view is particularly important in Industrial Arts. One learns what to do when a car refuses to run, how to cope with maintenance problems in the home, and what product is a better buy in the deceptive market place. Industrial Arts is then literally a survival course in our modern technological society.

Chin Up! Shoulders Back! Stomach In!

Physical education is an integral part of total education which contributes to the development of the individual through the natural medium of physical activity. The cooperative action of the Ramsey Schools provides a climate in which students are exposed to experiences that provide opportunities for the learner to develop and maintain a satisfactory degree of physical efficiency for daily living and to enjoy a variety of wholesome physical recreational activities, some of which may carry over into adult life. A carefully planned, selected sequence of activities provides continuing opportunities for the development of physical, social, and emotional needs throughout a student's life. The total program content relates to human growth and development and is designed to meet the interests, capacities, and abilities of individuals.

Steven Hyman

Special Services Sees To Special Needs

Students who have special learning needs or handicapping conditions requiring specific accommodations may be served by the Child Study Team (CST). The members of the CST are the school psychologist, a specialist in human behavior, the school social worker, a caseworker who counsels with parents and pupils, and the learning consultant, who is an educational diagnostician. The school nurse oversees the health and safety of students and serves as an adjunct to the CST. The speech and language pathologist works directly with students to help them with their communication skills.

WHAT WILL YOU BE DOING IN THE YEAR 2001?

Mike Greenshields, Joe Mandara, and Paul Mascitelli — will be living on the Planet Truro with Mickey the Beak.

Jody Ragazzo — will be happily married to a certain someone and living comfortably in our condominium and still driving my red Camaro!

Ellen Mullen — Will be a partying Hair Stylist in the Big City.

Mary Anne Spagnolo — By the year 2001, I'll be teaching Calculus to 3rd graders.

Terry Maher — will have my own business by now.

Beth Eames — Enjoying Pina Coladas while watching a servant polish my Mercedes 450SL

Julie Sproviero — a dedicated Ph.D. by day & throwing outrageous parties from my mountain retreat nightly — NOT married!

Bill Cavaragh — Husband of the first woman president

Doug Rossier — will be at my Bermuda beach house, enjoying my Lowies & Blondes.

Ruth Anne Dreisbach — "36-24-36" still brilliant, but being appreciated for my beauty instead of my brain.

Dave Neiblum — Living comfortably and under the same roof as Cheryl Ladd

Patrick Tommaney — Park Commissioner and roommate with Franklin.

Loralyn Davis — President of a large corporation, millionaire or a Broadway Star, or doing research to find the cure for cancer.

Nancy Baker — Living in Vermont with someone special, looking over my estate.

Howard Sweeney — Happily married to Kathy, living on the West Coast building Sunbeam Replicars.

Andy Smits — Living on the Planet Truro with Mickey the Beak photographing centerfolds for Playboy.

Patti Hutton — will be 38 years old!

Cathy Osiate — Co-owner of an expanding chain of prosperous Plato's Retreats.

Meg Bergemann — Putting my kids through the same garbage as my parents put me through, "What are you going to do with your life after high school?"

Cindi Berbarian — A ski and beach bum in Calif. with a 63 Vette (or a real Turbo) unless I get busted for reckless driving in Lauderdale.

Glen Letizia — On a starship looking for other inhabitable planets.

Liza Hosein — Business career, flying high in Airforce, Married to a hunk, having fun laughing and enjoying life!

Craig MacGibbon — Relaxing in Maine by the fire, making millions, EMFR, and drinking Michelobs.

Lisa Held — will be at Jack LaLane's health spa losing all the weight I've gained in the past 20 years.

Margaret Cassella — will have Mega-bucks, live on Park Ave., be one of the elite everyone else is mingling with as well know actress — or a nun.

Lora Mackenzie — will be in jail for corrupting the Dallas Cowboy Cheerleaders.

Laurie Dean — will be an independent person in the Arizona Mountains.

Judi Bockhorn — Happily married and happy with whatever I'm doing while I try to decide how to spend my first million.

Butch Adamski — will be a gynecologist in France.

Dani O'Connell — Co-owner of a fast growing chain of successful Plato's Retreats.

Judy Shortway — Sitting on a park bench in Bogata, NJ or lying on Table Beach in Davie, Fla.

Sue Meyer — Will be a professional mud wrestler

Jennifer Hosein — Hopefully scuba diving with a fellow marine biologist on a tropical island.

Cindy Meeks — Married, two kids, and the owner of an Appaloosa Horse Ranch

Glenn Schuck — Broadcasting a Yankee game for WPIX-TV in Yankee Stadium

Ed Jarvis — Having a fun time after being inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame and doing Lite Beer commercials.

Mike McCambridge — Imitating Ben Hogan and making a million off of it.

Kris Taylor — A successful author, married and living either in the mountains of Pennsylvania or on a farm in Ohio.

Christopher Hennelly — Being the top actor and dancer that ever hit Broadway, President of the US.

Jerry Hagan — Very rich or 10 to 20

Virginia Eibert — Have a self-providing solar powered farm, greenhouse, and lab.

Kellie Healy — Mingling with the elite in Europe with my third rich husband and driving a Porsche Turbo.

Kathy Murphy — Still enjoing life to the fullest and partying every day.

Katie Ladd — Living very happily down at the beach with "G"

Eileen Clare — In the year 2001, I'll be cruising in my brand new T-roofed vette all over the country, downing ice cold Molson's.

Todd Loscalzo — Lounging around the pool of my million dollar estate.

Laura Kouyoumjian — Sailing to Tahiti on my private yacht or paddling down the Hudson in my rowboat.

John Milstead — Relaxing after a pro-baseball career, spending millions on wine, women, and chewing tobacco.

Tina Matson — Married to Matt Cambra, living in New York state, owning a beauty shop

Pat Gil — Sitting back and looking back at old times.

Paul Herring — will be a beach bum down in Florida.

Rich Farnham — In Tahiti on the beach or fishing on my sailboat.

Tony Ajello — Selling my body to innocent girls like Farrah, Cheryl, and Bo.

Beth Andrews — Street Preachin' in Scotland

Missy Atsatt — Marrying a rich accountant, living in Alcapulco, and starting our own accounting firm.

Hugh Brewster — The Prime minister of Great Britain

Regina Doherty — Will have bought every Wendy's chain and personally burned each one in it's own "hot and juicy" grease.

Anne Nuzzo-Rich, enjoying champagne, cadillacs, cash and an unlimited credit card to Saks.

Amy Hofmann — Married to a guy 6'2, and living in Kansas.

Kathy Hudert — Living on a deserted island in the Caribbean with Bruce Springsteen.

Lou Kertesz — In the year 2001, I might turn over and tan my back side in the French Isles.

Henry Stein — will own my own business and have lots of money and live in a big house.

Eileen Enright — will be driving a black Trans-Am and still listening to Zeppelin.

Melanie Orsi — Famous in public relations and married to Christopher Atkins.

Mike Gallo — Producing "EMFR" bumperstickers and selling them in Ramsey — I have to make a million.

Lynda Stellingwerf — Discovering the Spectrum Spirit and the secret of the Infinite Goof while munchin' Mushrooms and chasing butterflies.

Cyrus Bardouille — will probably be somewhere in space, living in a space colony, and shooting down left movement activists.

Bob Chambers — Living in Fla., relaxing on the beach. I will also be living well as a corporate president and driving a Porche Turbo Carrera — Nothing but the best.

Scott Ghiz — will be playing the Hayden Trumpte Concerto with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Sindi Terry — will be happily married with 2 children and a great career as a video operator technician.

Dwight Johnston — Living an easy life of relaxation on the beaches of Florida and the ski slopes of Colorado.

Joan Adamski — Still screaming at her brother for writing disgusting things in the yearbook and married to Rob.

Kim MacDonald — Four-Wheeling in the mud.

Bob Walsh — Collecting money from a lawsuit against Anheuser-Busch, President of Ba Walsh Breweries, and ridin' my Harley.

Joseph Lutz — Working in construction and building.

Jim Becroft — Owning a small house or farm and logging the north of Sweden

Michael Kahn — will be recovering from a hangover or Ronald Reagan's plastic surgeon.

Leisa Aquinas — Living on the cliffs of Montauk mingling with the elite!

Chuck Stuto — Sitting back with my feet on the desk in my own tobacconist shop with a wad of chew in my mouth.

Allison Peters — Living in Utah with someone special, and the memories of others will never be forgotten.

Susan Laga — Cruising around in my 63 convertible Corvette to my textile factory.

Debbie Mullin — Serving as a dietician — missionary overseas or in a US hospital, also a wife and mother.

Yearbook Staff RULES!!

To the Reader:

The 1981 Nugget is the product of tremendous efforts on the part of a devoted staff. The late nights and early mornings are as essential to this book as the pictures are to the pages. The purpose of this book was to inscribe the memories of the Class of 1981 in a diary that we'll cherish for years to come.

I will never forget the all-nighters at Mrs. Diesenhof's or the closeness that grew between staff members who were thrown together last June with hopes of compatibility. I shall never forget my Nugget friends and the great times we've shared. And I shall never forget this yearbook, because every page holds a special magic for me.

There are many people without whose help we could not have functioned, and so I would like to thank:

- Mrs. "D", for all her advice, guidance, and judgement and for breakfast in the morning.
- Denise, Andy, and Margaret, for helping me create a Sports section we can be proud of.
- Rich and Lou, for showing me that I knew more about sports than I thought I did.
- Mr. Rizzo and Mr. Melville for letting us make all those announcements, use the copier, and bending the rules every once in awhile.
- All the Mothers and Fathers, for putting up with tired, grumpy kids and long, late staff meetings.
- The Underclass Editors, who worked so hard and did such a great job.
- The Teachers who lost half their classes to "Yearbook Activities."
- The Janitors who cleaned up after our long meetings and let us stay in the building to finish everything in time for deadlines.
- Bill Tilley, who taught us how to lay out pages.
- Joyce Canaan, for helping, in more ways than one, just when we needed her most.
- Jim Bischoff, because he always knew where the missing copy was.
- Joanne Ladd, who worked her fingers to the bone on the Senior section.
- Almar Photo for their very special service, and Bob, for being so personable.
- And anyone else who helped us, people too numerous to mention.

This Nugget is not for the Senior Class alone, but for the entire student body of Ramsey High School. Enjoy!
